

the IFS membership package

As a member of IFS, you will be kept informed about current fiscal policy issues, which affect every business and individual in the country. Your subscription will also help to support our work: IFS is the only institute specialising in this field which is respected by government and industry alike while remaining independent of any commercial organisation or political party.

benefits to members

- free subscription to our quarterly journal, Fiscal Studies;
- free copies of all IFS reports;
- generous discounts on attendance at IFS conferences and seminars;
- a regular newsletter.

annual membership rates

individuals	£50
not-for-profit organisations	£125

To join, please complete the form and return it to the FREEPOST address shown.
