

Stuart David ADAM

Date of Birth 1 November 1979

Nationality British

Education

2002 – 2004 MSc Economics, University College London (Distinction)

1998 – 2001 BA Philosophy, Politics and Economics, St Catherine's College,
University of Oxford (2:1)
Awarded (1999) and re-awarded (2000) Philip Fothergill Scholarship for academic excellence.

Employment

2001 – Institute for Fiscal Studies (currently senior research economist)

Publications

A Cost-Benefit Analysis of Pathways to Work for New and Repeat Incapacity Benefits Claimants, Department for Work and Pensions Research Report 498, 2008 (with A. Bozio, C. Emmerson, D. Greenberg and G. Knight).

The 10% Tax Rate: Where Next?, IFS Briefing Note no. 77, 2008 (with M. Brewer and R. Chote).

“Capital Gains Tax”, Chapter 10 of The IFS Green Budget: January 2008, IFS Commentary no. 104, eds. R. Chote, C. Emmerson, D. Miles and J. Shaw, London: IFS, 2008.

Integrating Income Tax and National Insurance: An Interim Report, IFS Working Paper no. W07/21, 2007 (with G. Loutzenhiser).

A Survey of UK Local Government Finance, IFS Briefing Note no. 74, 2007 (with C. Emmerson and A. Kenley).

“Government Financial Support for Children across the United Kingdom: how does Northern Ireland compare?”, Part 2 of An Analysis of Public Expenditure in Northern Ireland, Belfast: NICCY, 2007 (with M. Brewer, J. Browne and D. Phillips).

The Poverty Trade-Off: Work Incentives and Income Redistribution in Britain, Bristol: The Policy Press, 2006 (with M. Brewer and A. Shephard).

Financial Work Incentives in Britain: Comparisons Over Time and Between Family Types, IFS Working Paper no. W06/20, 2006 (with M. Brewer and A. Shephard).

Options for a UK 'Flat Tax': Some Simple Simulations, IFS Briefing Note no. 72, 2006 (with J. Browne).

Early Quantitative Evidence on the Impact of the Pathways to Work Pilots, Department for Work and Pensions Research Report 354, 2006 (with C. Emmerson, C. Frayne and A. Goodman).

A Survey of the UK Tax System, IFS Briefing Note no. 9, 2006 (with J. Browne). Updated annually: previous updates with C. Frayne (2001), G. Kaplan (2002), J. Shaw (2003) and alone (2004).

Measuring the Marginal Efficiency Cost of Redistribution in the UK, IFS Working Paper no. W05/14, 2005.

Take-up of Family Credit and Working Families' Tax Credit, Inland Revenue Working Paper no. 1a, 2005 (with M. Brewer).

Proposed Tax and Benefit Changes: winners and losers in the next term, IFS Election Briefing Note no. 11, 2005 (with M. Brewer).

Tax and Benefit Changes: winners and losers, IFS Election Briefing Note no. 1, 2005 (with M. Brewer and M. Wakefield).

“The Distributional Effects of Tax and Benefit Reforms since 1997”, Chapter 7 of The IFS Green Budget: January 2005, IFS Commentary no. 98, eds. R. Chote, C. Emmerson, D. Miles and Z. Oldfield, London: IFS, 2005 (with M. Wakefield).

Supporting families: The financial costs and benefits of children since 1975, Bristol: The Policy Press, 2004 (with M. Brewer).

“Options for Raising Revenue”, Chapter 4 of The IFS Green Budget: January 2004, IFS Commentary no. 95, eds. R. Chote, C. Emmerson and Z. Oldfield, London: IFS, 2004 (with H. Reed).

The Benefits of Parenting: Government Financial Support for Families with Children Since 1975, IFS Commentary no. 91, London: IFS, 2003 (with M. Brewer and H. Reed).

“Children, well-being and taxes and benefits”, Economic Review, 20(3) and 20(4), 2003 (with M. Brewer).

“Income Tax and National Insurance Contributions”, Chapter 5 of The IFS Green Budget: January 2003, IFS Commentary no. 92, eds. R. Chote, C. Emmerson and H. Simpson, London: IFS, 2003 (with H. Reed).

“Options for Increasing Tax”, Chapter 4 of The IFS Green Budget: January 2002, IFS Commentary no. 87, eds. A. Dilnot, C. Emmerson and H. Simpson, London: IFS, 2002 (with T. Clark and M. Wakefield).

Other work in progress

Member of the editorial team of the Mirrlees Review, and co-author of chapter on “Taxation in the UK” with J. Browne and C. Heady.