Early Childhood Development: Fostering Economic Inclusion Right from the Start

10:30-12:00 Tuesday, 19 January 2016

Auditorium, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)
One Exchange Square, London EC2A 2JN

This seminar has been organised by the Office of the Chief Economist and Country and Sector Economics at EBRD and EDePo at the Institute for Fiscal Studies (IFS).

Programme

10:30-10:35
Introduction and welcome: Ralph De Haas, Director of Research, EBRD

10:35-11:35
Gábor Kézdi, Central European University, Budapest. “Early childhood development of Roma children in the Slovak Republic”

11:35-12:00
Panel discussion and Q&A: “Early Childhood Development: policy implications and the impact on marginalised groups”
Moderator: Orazio Attanasio, EDePo, Institute for Fiscal Studies, London
Discussants: Sonya Krutikova, EDePo, Institute for Fiscal Studies, London and Barbara Rambousek, Senior Inclusion Specialist, EBRD

12:00-
Close

This event is free of charge but please register your place by emailing Lucie Newman (newmanl@ebrd.com) with your full name and those of any guests accompanying you. Please arrive approximately 25 minutes prior to the event. On arrival you will be asked to show your ID to confirm the place on the guest list (photo identification is preferable but anything with your full name on is acceptable). Please arrive at the main entrance on Exchange Square rather than the Bishopsgate entrance.