

IFS Green Budget 2017

In association with ICAEW and funded by the Nuffield Foundation

Tuesday 7 February 2017 - Guildhall, London

#IFSGreenBudget

09:30: Registration and refreshments

10:00 - 11:30: First session

Welcome and introduction

Paul Johnson (IFS), Tim Gardam (Nuffield Foundation), and Michael Izza (ICAEW)

The outlook for the UK and world economy

Andrew Goodwin (Oxford Economics)

Challenges facing the public finances

Thomas Pope (IFS)

Public spending on the NHS and social care

George Stoye (IFS)

Q&A

11:30 - 12:00: Refreshments

12:00 - 13:15: Second session

Whole of Government Accounts and funding the deficit

Ross Campbell (ICAEW)

Tax, legal form and the gig economy

Helen Miller (IFS)

Incapacity and disability benefit policy

Carl Emmerson (IFS)

Apprenticeship policy in England

Luke Sibieta (IFS)

Q&A

Support from the ESRC through the Centre for the Microeconomic Analysis of Public Policy at IFS is gratefully acknowledged. This event is held with kind support from the City of London Corporation.